Annual General Meetings

Propositions put to the vote shall be decided by those entitled to vote

1. The Chairman has a casting vote.
2. The Chairman will read out a Proposal and shall ask:
 - First for a seconder
 - Second if there are any amendments

If there are any amendments

The Chairman shall

- First ask for a proposer
- Second ask for a seconder.

The amendment shall then become a proposal. The Chairman will ask for a vote as to whether the proposal can be put before the meeting.

If the meeting votes Yes the Chairman shall ask for a vote on the Amended Proposal.

If the meeting votes No the Chairman shall return to the original proposal.

If the amended proposal is accepted the original falls by default.
